

EFF STATEMENT ON DR REGINA NESENGANI

Tuesday, 01 December 2020

The EFF would like to heartily congratulate Dr Regina Nesengani who was conferred a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) Degree by UNISA at age 65. Dr. Nesengani, popularly known as vho-Masindi in the popular SABC 2 drama, Muvhango, inspires confidence to both young and old and demonstrates passion and exemplary commitment to education.

Dr Nesengani's doctoral dissertation focused on GBV issues and was written in TshiVenda language. The EFF recognises all efforts by blacks, and Africans in particular, who have a hunger for truth and knowledge as we believe this is an instrument for creating the kind of society we want. This is why the EFF will also be establishing the Winnie Madikizela Mandela Combined School for children who have lost their parents to HIV/AIDS, academically brilliant children, and children coming from poor backgrounds.

Well-done Dr. Regina Nesengani. This is a well-deserved achievement and your success inspires many of us to pursue our studies until the highest level possible. Your contribution to this ever-growing knowledge will be honoured.
