

EFF STATEMENT ON THE 64TH INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY OF GHANA

Saturday, 6 March 2021

The EFF congratulates the people and government of Ghana on the 64th Independence anniversary. Ghana is amongst the first generation of African states to force the hand of colonialist to leave governance of African people to Africans. In the words of Pan Africanist, the first President of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah, he declared "The African people are capable of managing their affairs, and Ghana, our beloved country is free forever."

Sixty-four years later, Ghanaians live in poverty and remain servitudes in their motherland. With diamond, cocoa and vast agricultural riches, poor leadership that is directionless has endowed the people of Ghana to perpetual life of misery. These riches have not translated to economic freedom to the people of Ghana.

Successive governments in Ghana, like many African governments, have failed to protect its mineral resources from the western monopolies, who continue to exploit the mineral and agricultural resources and enslave the workers.

The implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area must be a start to improving people's lives on the African continent and the Ghanaian government may choose the path of economic freedom or join the list of failed states in Africa.

The relative political stability and restraint of its leaders from engaging in violence is a strength and opportunity for whosoever is elected, to deliver the people from abject poverty to prosperity. All it needs is a political will and commitment.

Revolutionary best wishes on the occasion of the National Day of the Republic of Ghana !!!
