

EFF STATEMENT ON THE TERROR ATTACKS IN UGANDA

Wednesday, 17 November 2021

The EFF condemns in strongest terms the terror attacks yesterday against the people of Uganda, which resulted in deaths and scores critically injured.

Terrorism is not revolutionary and has no place in a vision for united, prosperous and peaceful Pan Africanist continent and should be rejected swiftly.

We call upon those who have a dissenting view to engage meaningfully for regime change without bloodbath.

The EFF shall always be on the side of those who are brutalised and will always encourage peaceful constructive efforts to resolve political problems.

We call for calm and restraint from all sides of the conflict in the midst of extreme provocation.

The EFF sends its heartfelt condolences to the families and people of Uganda and wish role players to the civil strife, reach out to each other soonest, to bring about political stability, peace and economic prosperity.

Africa and her people deserve silencing of guns.
