

EFF WISHES ITS MUSLIM BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN AFRICA AND THE WORLD A BLESSED RAMADAN

Sunday, 3 April 2022

As Muslims prepare to observe the holy month of Ramadan, we call for tolerance, understanding and respect across society for all those who will be observing this holy month.

This holy month reminds us of the noble values inherent in Islam such as compassion, mutual respect and humility.

Let us take inspiration from this spirit of sharing and togetherness and remember with kindness the vulnerable, the poor and the marginalized. Islam calls for unity, justice and peace.

So let us stand together in solidarity in these trying times and strive to build a just and peaceful world.
