

OPPOSITION POLITICAL PARTY CONSULTATIVE FORUM MEETING WITH EXTERNAL STAKEHOLDERS

01 September 2022

The Opposition Political Party Consultative Forum met on the 31st of August 2022 to brief members of the broader society on the progress made to date to rescue the country from the mis-leadership by Ramaphosa.

Present from the broader society were various key individuals and organisations including Not In My Name International, The Forum 4 Service Delivery (F4SD), Organic Humanity Movement (OHM), Active Africans Christian United Movement (AACUM), The South African Council of Messianic Churches (SACMCC) and Mr. Moeletsi Mbeki who was invited by the Forum to address it on economic related issues of South Africa.

The meeting was unanimous in endorsing and commending the progress made thus far including the parallel strategy of moving with both the Impeachment and the Motion of No Confidence.

The meeting agreed that the next meeting point will be at 11h00 at Loftus Stadium where the march to the Acting Public Protector will depart from.

The meeting was not persuaded by the excuses from Advocate Gcaleka, the Acting Public Protector who has failed to comply with s3(2) of the Executive Members Ethics Act which compels the Public Protector to issue a report on alleged breach in 30 days.

The Picket at the Public Protector Office will kick start the mass action and culminate into a shutdown in due course.

Opposition Political Parties present in the meeting included the Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF), United Democratic Movement (UDM), African Christian Democratic Movement (ACDP), African Transformation Movement (ATM), Pan Africanist Congress of Azania (PAC), Azanian People's Organisation (AZAPO), African People's Convention (APC), Party of Action (POA) and Us The People.

