

EFF CONDEMNS CYRIL RAMAPHOSA FOR RUNNING AWAY FROM THE QUESTION AND ANSWER SESSION WITH THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF PROVINCES

Thursday, 01 December 2022

The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) condemns the constitutional delinquent and criminal Cyril Ramaphosa who has today decided to abandon the Question and Answer session scheduled with the National Council of Provinces (NCOP).

Operating like a fugitive, Ramaphosa has decided to abscond from accountability and facing Members of Parliament, because he knows that the findings of the Independent Panel on the crimes of Phala Phala Farm have exposed him as a gangster and mafia President.

Ramaphosa is compelled by the Constitution to account to Parliament, and he cannot avoid these obligations simply because of his cowardice, and that he has been revealed as a scoundrel. Ramaphosa has now not only violated the Constitution, but he has spat in the face of millions of South Africans who deserve accountability through Parliament.

The EFF cautions Ramaphosa and advises him that he cannot hide forever. His best course of action remains immediate resignation, because he will never know peace in any sitting of Parliament because the EFF will never allow a money launderer, kidnapper, torturer and constitutional delinquent to address the people of this country.

Ramaphosa has forfeited the privilege of being a President, and no amount of running away will rescue him.
