

EFF APPLAUDS THE PEACE TREATY SIGNED IN ETHIOPIA WHICH BRINGS AN END TO THE WAR IN THE TIGRAY REGION

Thursday, 03 November 2022

The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) welcomes the peace treaty signed in Ethiopia, which brings an end to the devastating war which has plagued the Tigray region for the past two-years. The end of the brutal war, which saw thousands displaced, killed and impoverished, is a moment of relief for all of us who have been pained to see African people destroy one another with impunity.

In a momentous occasion which marks the end of the spilling of the blood of African people, the armed forces of the Tigray region and the army of Ethiopia agreed to cease all hostilities. This is a proud moment for all of Africa, which has been stunted by wars such as the one which lasted two years in Ethiopia.

The EFF commends the African Union, led by Olusegun Obasanjo in mediating the conflict and bring peace to the people of Ethiopia. This peace treaty should be followed by massive efforts to rebuild Ethiopia and provide aid to families who have lost their ones and their homes due to the war.

Let it be an instructive lesson to all rebel forces and governments that in war there are no true victors, and the people suffer. May Ethiopia know peace and prosperity for many generations to come.
