Monday, 4 September 2023

The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) proudly announces Councillor Nonhlanhla Fortunate Makhanya from Ward 4 Bhamshela Township, in Ndwedwe, KwaZulu-Natal, as our esteemed Councillor of the Month for September 2023. Her remarkable dedication and commitment to serving the community shine brightly.

Councillor Makhanya demonstrated her compassion by generously donating food parcels to the grieving family of an elderly woman who tragically lost her life while on her way to collect water.

In addition to the food parcels, she extended her support by providing essential groceries and even arranged for a tent to be hired for the Goge family, exemplifying her dedication to helping those in need during challenging times.

During the month of August, Councillor Makhanya exhibited her commitment to inclusivity by donating a total of eight wheelchairs to disabled individuals residing in Ndwedwe areas, specifically in Ward 4, 5, and Ward 8. This act of generosity has undoubtedly improved the mobility and quality of life for these community members.

In a commendable effort to empower her constituents, Councillor Makhanya also tirelessly assisted 48 people in their ID application processes. This initiative is pivotal in ensuring that our people have unhindered access to essential social services and the fundamental right to participate in our democratic processes, including the right to vote.

Councillor Makhanya's exemplary dedication to uplifting the lives of her constituents and her devotion to social justice are qualities that resonate with EFF's mission to promote economic freedom and equality for all.

In saluting her outstanding contributions to our community, we will be awarding Councillor Makhanya R50,000 to invest in a developmental project of her choosing, and look forward to continued progress under her leadership.
