

EFF STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF ACTOR MPHONGA SEBENG

Monday, 06 May 2024.

The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) is deeply saddened by the untimely passing of actor Mpho Sebeng at the age of 31. The family of the esteemed South African entertainer has confirmed his tragic demise in a car accident in Potchefstroom on Sunday, 5 May 2024.

Born in Soweto, Sebeng was a rising star whose talent illuminated both television and film. His contributions to the entertainment industry were immense, marked by memorable performances across various platforms. From his television debut in the SABC drama series "Justice for All" to his acclaimed roles in "Ring of Lies" and "The Queen," Sebeng's dedication to his craft earned him widespread recognition and admiration.

Sebeng's talent and passion for his craft transcended screens, captivating audiences with each performance, earning him a best actor SAFTA in 2018. His versatility shone brightly as he effortlessly portrayed characters in a diverse array of local and international shows and films, leaving an indelible mark on the industry.

His passing is not only a loss to his family and friends but also to the entire entertainment fraternity, where he will be dearly missed. We honour his memory and celebrate the profound impact he has left on South African television and cinema. May his legacy continue to inspire and uplift aspiring actors for years to come.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to Sebeng's family, friends, and colleagues during this difficult time. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
