

EFF STATEMENT ON NAMIBIA AND BOTSWANA BILATERAL RELATIONS.

Monday, 12 September 2022

The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) welcomes the sound and meaningful bilateral agreement between Namibian and Botswana governments in abolishing the use of passports for travel between the two countries.

Contrary to the colonial and imperial establishment, Namibians and Botswana will now use identity cards to travel between the two countries.

This historic agreement is a milestone in the EFF's struggle for a United States of Africa, with one currency, one Parliament and no colonial borders that divide us Africans from each other.

The EFF notes the agreement with vindication as this will send a strong message to doomsayers and enemies of Pan-Africanism and African unity.

South Africa and all the neighbouring SADC countries must draw inspiration from Namibia and Botswana and follow suit in a bid to deliver a common vision of Africa Unite.

It is through this unity and strong Africa relations that Xenophobia and Afro-phobia phenomena will be defeated in our lifetime because Africa belongs to Africans.
