

EFF DEPUTY PRESIDENT FLOYD SHIVAMBU WILL VISIT DIMPHONYANA TSA LAPENG TO DONATE SCHOOL ESSENTIALS AND GROCERIES

Friday, 31 December 2021

EFF Deputy President Floyd Shivambu will be handing over school shoes and groceries to young children under the care of Dimphonyana Tsa Lapeng in Olivenhoutbosch, on the 1st of January 2022.

The details are as follows:

Date: 01 January 2022

Time: 14h00

Venue: 9 Khulu Street EXT 25, Olivenhoutbosch E, Tshwane

Dimphonyana Tsa Lapeng was established in 2000 as a nursery & pre-school by Asnath Teffo, also known as Mama Asie, a name given to her by the community for her passion and love of children. In 2004 the centre expanded its services by establishing a place of safety for children in Olivenhoutbosch. This later became a foster home.

The need for these extended services was due to the high number of child abuse cases in the area. The home accommodates not more than 15 children and has 300 beneficiaries who are on soup kitchen and 187 are children aged 6 months to 12 years of age. An early childhood development centre of 37 learners with 18 not paying due to parents' affordability.
